Escort duties

- 1) To encourage young children in safe bus use
- 2) To help children with seatbelts
- 3) To support the driver in keeping a check on any minor misbehaviour
- 4) In the unlikely event of evacuation, to be an extra support to the driver of the vehicle.

Drivers are trained to take overall responsibility for the safety and comfort of children on board.

Whilst drivers may ask escorts to help with answering the phone or checking the register, this still remains the sole responsibility of the driver.
